Dear Tom & Shondra,

Many, many thanks for your truly outstanding performance at my husband's surprise 70th Birthday Party last Sunday. There is no question that David had not a clue that we were going to anything other than a quiet dinner at the L' Auberge Resort. Certainly, walking into a room filled with family and friends from across the country, and seeing you two there, was a total shock to him.

I am amazed how you were able to so cleverly put such a wide assortment of family remembrances into such beautiful lyrics in orchestrating "This is Your Life" for David. We continue to receive rave reports about how wonderful the party was, especially how magnificent you both were. Your personality and simply splendid voices did make all the difference between just a surprise party and an event that will be remembered forever. Thank you so much.

Warmest regards,
